

Une Belle Soirée à Paris

An elegant 19th century Parisian ball with classic French style

Saturday, December 9, 2017

7:45 – 11:00 p.m.

Join us at “Une Belle Soirée à Paris”. The program features the music and dance styles popular in Paris and the rest of France from the Napoleonic era to “La Belle Epoque” at the end of the century. Dances will include early French contredanses and quadrille figures, European polka and mazurka, haunting waltzes, and a stirring traditional farandole from the south of France. Music will be provided by Childgrove.

Period ball dress is encouraged but not required. You can dress in the style of any era of the 19th century.

Price: $30 per person (includes the pre-ball workshops).
Preregistration is preferred.

Pre-ball Workshops

Dance Mistress Cathy Stephens will teach you the steps you’ll need to dance all night.

10:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m. — Set dances from an elegant waltz country dance to the early French Quadrille and the French version of Lancers

1:30–3:00 p.m. — Dances include the Parisienne Varieties Quadrille, a touch of mazurka, and an old French farandole

Location: Pittsfield Grange, 3337 Ann Arbor-Saline Rd.
Ann Arbor, Michigan
